When it comes to a time of crisis, Family Child Care Business Owners have proven they have the creativity and drive to “rise to the challenge” and persevere! Community Coaching is bringing together a panel of Family Child Care Business Owners that have found ways to create safe environments during this time of COVID in order to meet the needs of their families and children and remain open for business. We invite you to join us as they share their thoughts and ideas and to join in the conversation to add your own to the discussion. We know that when we work together, many solutions are found! This webinar will provide you with a tool box to keep your business open and thriving during these difficult times.
